

Geotechnical & Environmental Services Promotes Dan De Battista to Program Manager

LAS VEGAS - Geotechnical & Environmental Services, Inc. (GES) president Greg DeSart announced Dan De Battista has been promoted to interim engineering program manager for the GES Las Vegas office. In his position De Battista will be responsible for the overall supervision and coordination of all project engineers, scientists and interns.

“We are excited to have De Battista accept this opportunity,” said DeSart. “Our staff welcomes his skill and enthusiasm in addition to his project management experience.”

GES is a full-service, southern Nevada engineering firm focusing on geotechnical, environmental, materials testing and construction inspections. In addition, the company offers drilling support for the design, construction and maintenance of public infrastructure and private development. GES is regularly recognized as one of the best companies to work for.
