

Geotechnical & Environmental Services Executive Named to Association & Waste Management Association Board

LAS VEGAS – Geotechnical & Environmental Services' (GES) General Manager Kyle Hansen was recently appointed treasurer for the Air & Waste Management Association (A&WMA). As an executive member of the A&WMA, Hansen will help guide the association and its many members into the future.

“Kyle’s appointment is yet another example of the GES Advantage,” said GES President Greg DeSart. “This designation is the result of Kyle’s personal dedication to our profession and the community in which we live.”

The A&WMA is a nonprofit, nonpartisan professional organization that enhances knowledge and expertise by providing a neutral forum for information exchange, professional development, networking opportunities, public education, and outreach to more than 9000 environmental professionals in 65 countries.

GES is a full-service, southern Nevada engineering firm focusing on geotechnical, environmental, materials testing and construction inspection services. GES’ sister company, Eagle Drilling, offers drilling services for design support, construction and maintenance for private development. GES has been consistently recognized as one of the “Best Companies to Work for.”
